FAMILIES

How to play:

- Shuffle the 32 or 64 cards well and give each player the same number of cards.
- Whoever already has a "Family", (meaning 4 cards with the same letter-number combination in the upper left corner) in their hand form a "Family". If he gets the card, he may continue to ask the same player or ask another player. If the person being asked does not have the sought card, he may continue the game and ask for the cards that he is missing.

Who wins:

The winner is the player who collects the most super cool Families.

Tip:

- It can also be played with 2 players: Deal each player 6 cards, and put the others face down on a stack. The dealer starts by asking for a particular card. If the other player does not have the card, the first player takes the top card from the deck. Then it is the second player's turn.

may place it face up. Gameplay proceeds clockwise. The first to call out "Start your engines!" begins. He asks a fellow player for the symbol of the card he needs in order to

TRUMP

How to play:

- Shuffle the 32 or 64 turbocharged cards well and give each player the same number of cards.
- Example: with 2 players each gets 16/32 cards.
- With three players, each player gets 10 cards (and the last two cards are set aside) or 21 cards (and the last card is set aside).
- Each player takes his stack into his hand so that he sees only the TOP card. The player who can race the fastest selects one of the powerful motor categories. He reads aloud: for example, "Maximum speed".
- The other players take turns reading off the requested information. Whoever has the highest value wins the other players' cards and puts them under his pile. If the values are the same, the cards are laid on the table and the next card in the hand is read aloud, until one player has the highest value and trumps the other players.

- The respective winner gets to announce the next value.

There are 2 turbocharged ways to win:

- The fast-paced version for die-hard motor fans: The game ends when a player is eliminated due to lack of cards. The winner is the one who has the most cards.
- The exciting and perennial version: The game ends when one player has captured all the cards and thus clearly won.
